Ship Details

When was the ship built?

The Celestyal Crystal is a 1992 conversion. In 1994 the ship was entirely renovated. Since then, Celestyal Crystal has been refurbished several times and renovated continually. The last renovations were in the fall of 2015 when 43 balcony cabins were added. (Total number of balconies: 53)

How big is the ship?

25,611 tonnes - 162m long (531 ft). It has nine passenger decks, 476 staterooms of which 53 have balconies, and can accommodate 952 guests in lower berths (total capacity 1200).

How big are the cabins and balconies?

General questions about the cabin you're interested in can be answered by our call center.

Do any of the cabin windows open?

With the exception of the balcony suites, the windows on the ship do not open for safety reasons.

What are some of the ship's meeting area amenities?

Celestyal Crystal has conference rooms with audio/visual equipment such as: video projector, podium, flat screen TV, DVD player, laptops, flip charts, audio systems, and microphones. Conference rooms are located on Ouranos deck 8.

Is there a medical center onboard?

Yes. The Celestyal Crystal has a medical center onboard. If you are taking any prescription medications we suggest that you carry a few days' extra supply in case of flight delays or other unforeseen circumstances. Medication should be carried in your hand luggage. If you have any allergies, please contact our call center.

What is the electrical voltage onboard?

All cabins have electrical outlets for both 110 and 220 volts.

Is there an emergency contact number for the ship?

Yes. The ship can be contacted at the following numbers: 001 9546 726 798/99 (Reception) and by fax: 00870 765096512/13.

Will there be cell phone service while onboard the ship?

Yes, but please note that when mobile phones are out of shore side network limits, the signal will be transmitted via the vessels' satellite, which increases the cost to the subscriber. Please note that due to the vessel's geographical location, local satellite communication interruptions may be experienced.

Are there scheduled church services onboard?

There are no scheduled church services onboard the ship.

Beverages and Dining

What's included in my cruise?

Celestyal Cruise's 7-day "All-Inclusive" package consists of all meals onboard; selected, predetermined shore excursions, beverage package*, gratuities, port charges, evening entertainment and theme nights.

* There are 3 different types of all-inclusive drink packages: white, blue and gold. Pre-purchased Blue (alcoholic & non-alcoholic drinks) or white (non-alcoholic drinks) are incorporated in your cruise package+, however you may upgrade to our premium gold package.

+ For the German market only: beverage package will vary and is dependent on the package purchased.

How are meals served?

As a general rule the following applies:

Buffet breakfast is served in Amalthia Restaurant (Ouranos Deck 8), as well as Leda Casual Dining (Hera Deck 9).

Lunch is served "A la Carte" in Amalthia Restaurant (Ouranos Deck 8), as well as the lunch buffet in Leda Casual Dining (Hera Deck 9).

Dinner is always served "A la Carte" in Amalthia Restaurant (Ouranos Deck 8), and the Olympus Restaurant (Dionyssos Deck 5). Alternatively, buffet dinner is served in the Leda Casual Dining (Hera Deck 9) with the exception of the Captain's Dinner and Gala Night.

Will there be snacks served in addition to the meals?

Snacks outside designated times, sandwiches, and pizza are available at an extra cost and can be purchased at the bars or other designated areas onboard.

Afternoon tea is available at no additional charge.

What is the menu like onboard?

Meat and produce is imported from North America weekly. Rum and some produce is purchased locally in Cuba. To provide you with an 'authentic Cuba' experience, parts of the menu will explore modern and pre-1950s Cuban cuisine. Every day there will be an authentic Cuban dish served for lunch and dinner while the rest of the menu will include international dishes with a twist of Cuban flavors.

How do I notify you that I have a special dietary request?

Please notify our call center. Upon boarding, allergies or concerns should be mentioned to the ship's Maitre D'. We can accommodate gluten free meal requests. Kosher meals can be arranged upon request at an extra charge. Kosher meals must be pre-booked at minimum 40 days prior to your sailing date.

Are there two seating's for meals?

Meals will be served on an open seating basis commencing at 6:30pm.

Can I sit with my friends or family at the same table for dinner each night?

Yes, please arrive in the Dining room at the same time with your friends and family. Our Maitre D' will seat you together at the same table, subject to the size of the group. Large groups should contact the Maitre D' through the Reception desk for further arrangements.

What is the dress code for dinners?

Smart casual, no shorts or sandals for the gentlemen. For the Captain's dinner and gala event, elegant attire is encouraged but is entirely optional. Swimsuits and flip-flops are not allowed in the restaurants. Shorts or Bermuda shorts may be worn at dinner time in the Leda Casual dining on deck 9.

Is there room service available?

Yes, 24 hours/day for snacks, sandwiches, hot/cold beverages including beer and wine. Menu prices, with no delivery surcharge.

Is the tap water onboard the ship drinkable?

Yes, all water onboard is safe to drink. Tap water is freely available throughout the ship. Bottled water is also available onboard.

What is the minimum age for drinking alcohol onboard?

The minimum drinking age onboard is 18 years of age at time of sailing.

Are beverage packages available*?

Yes, with our all-inclusive program, pre-purchased choice of beverage packages will be reflected in the booking record. The Blue Alcoholic Beverage package is preselected for adults 18+ years old. For our 2 to 17 years old guests a non-alcoholic drink package is selected. For selected markets, pre-purchasing your beverage package may qualify for an early booking discount.

* For the German market only, the beverage package depends on the holiday package you have purchased.

What is included in the beverages package?

For a full description of our beverage packages please refer to the terms and conditions on our website cuba.celestyalcruises.com

Can only one person in a cabin buy the package?

No, all occupants in the cabin must pre-select a choice of drink package (excluding children under 5 years old).

Can I bring my own alcohol onboard?

Guests are not allowed to bring alcoholic beverages onboard during embarkation or in the ports of call. Any alcoholic beverages brought onboard will be collected by the ship's security staff and passengers must remember to pick them up prior to their final disembarkation, as shipment of alcohol is not allowed.

What to Pack

What should we pack for our cruise?

Day wear: During summer, casual light-weight resort wear, including light cotton clothing, swimwear and beach robe are recommended. Tennis shoes or low heeled walking shoes are most suitable for exploring the ports of call. In case of a cool breeze or unexpected shower a light jacket or sweater is recommended. Please pack heavier attire during the winter months. A hat and sunglasses are always recommended. Binoculars will be a great asset to your enjoyment whilst at sea and during excursions. We also suggest you have your camera ready at all times. When visiting places of worship, shorts are not allowed and shoulders should be covered. It is very important that you bring with you mosquito repellent for ashore use.

Evening wear: The shipboard daily program will inform you of the evening (after 6:00pm) dress code onboard. The majority of evenings onboard are country club casual but, there is one formal evening included. Suggested attire for the formal night: a suit for gentle-men and a cocktail dress or pants suit for the ladies.

Reservation Guidelines

What is the minimum age to travel?

For health and safety, infants under 3 months old are not permitted onboard. If your baby is older than 3 months, they may travel. If a baby cot is required, please alert our call center. Please note that we do not carry baby food, nor do we provide babysitting service. Please ensure that children/infant life jackets have been placed in your cabin. For more information about travelling with a baby, you may contact our call center at 1- 855-364-4999 or by email to info@yourcubacruise.com. Infants, children and youths are welcome if accompanied by their parents or a guardian of age 18 years old and above.

Are pregnant passengers permitted to travel?

Yes, only up to their 24th week of pregnancy, provided that they are holders of a written certification for travelling ability issued by their gynecologist. We recommend that pregnant women who have not yet completed the 12th week of their pregnancy by the date of the cruise, to contact their gynecologist.

Are there any special health requirements?

Check with your doctor regarding the health requirements of the countries to be visited. In certain circumstances a "fit to travel" declaration from your physician may be required. Passengers who need assistance and/or have special requests or need special facilities or equipment must contact our call center at 1-855-364-4999 at the time of booking. Please see "Terms and Conditions, CLIENTS REQUIRING EXTRA CARE & ASSISTANCE" on the Celestyal Cruises website cuba.celestyalcruises.com

What is the policy for name changes and cancellation penalties?

See "Terms & Conditions" on the Celestyal Cruises website cuba.celestyalcruises.com (unless otherwise specified in your contract).

Is there a waitlist option?

No.

Do I need a valid passport?

A valid passport is required for the cruise. You will need your passport and your Cuban visa to disembark at every port of call in Cuba during this voyage. Specifically for Canadian passport holders, the passport validity of 1 month after the last day of travel is required when flying into Cuba. For U.S. passport holders, the passport must be valid for the duration of stay when flying into Cuba. For all guests flying/or cruising into Jamaica holding U.S. or Canadian passports, their passport must be valid for the duration of their stay in Jamaica. We also suggest that you bring a photocopy of your passport and leave it in your cabin.

It is the responsibility of our passengers to secure the latest updates on passports validity and to obtain at their own expense all necessary travel documents required by relevant government authorities, at all ports of call, and to comply with the various laws thereof.

Do I need a Cuban Visa?

If you are travelling with a non-Canadian or U.S. passport, please check with your local Cuban Consulate or Tourist Office for any specific requirements.

If you embark in Havana, Cuba: To enter Cuba you will need a Cuban visa. This may be included with your airfare and will be provided to you on your flight. If you need to purchase a Cuban visa please contact the local Cuban Embassy/Consulate in your home country. You will need to keep the Cuban visa in your passport at all times. You will need to surrender your visa to the Cuban authorities when the ship departs from Cienfuegos on route to Jamaica. Before re-entering Cuba in Santiago de Cuba, you will obtain a new visa from our reception desk. The cost is already covered in your cruise fare. A Jamaican visa is not required for transit passengers that are visiting the port of Montego Bay for a few hours.

If you embark in Montego Bay, Jamaica: You will obtain your Cuban visa from the reception desk upon check in. The cost is covered in your cruise fare. In addition to the Cuban visa, if you embark in Montego Bay, please check with the local Jamaican Embassy/Consulate, whether a Jamaican visa is required, in order to fly into Jamaica.

Do I require medical or travel insurance?

Medical insurance is mandatory for all tourists visiting Cuba. This is a requirement of the Cuban government and all passengers MUST be able to show proof of medical insurance before they are allowed to board the ship. Without proof of medical insurance, you will be denied boarding and in such cases no refunds will be provided.

Travel insurance is however highly recommended although not mandatory, for your own protection.

Does Celestyal Cruises offer insurance?

Yes, in cooperation with Mondial Assistance we offer passengers traveling with us, the opportunity to purchase travel and compulsory medical insurance designed with the cruise in mind.

Mondial Assistance is one of the leading names worldwide providing travel insurance and assistance services. Please visit the insurance page of our website under the Your Cruise tab for full details on the policy. You can purchase insurance at the time of booking or by visiting our website at: <http://yourcubacruise.com/terms-and-conditions/travel-medical-insurance>

Are there departure taxes to pay when leaving Cuba or Jamaica?

If you are flying out of Jamaica there is a departure tax of $35 (USD) per person (subject to change) which is usually collected by the airlines through your ticket. If you are a Jamaican national or if you have stayed in Jamaica for more than 24 hours before your cruise you will be required to pay the departure tax of $35 (USD) per person (subject to change) when you arrive at the port of Montego Bay. The departure tax can also be collected in Jamaican currency at the current rate of exchange.

Can I travel with Celestyal Cruises if I am an American citizen?

Yes. The Office of Foreign Assets Control (OFAC) has introduced new general licenses within 12 categories of authorized travel to Cuba that require no formal application, prior permission nor advance notification to U.S. officials. Celestyal Cruises now welcomes Americans onboard by offering two easy ways to travel: book a comprehensive program with an authorized U.S. tour operator partner. See our website for more details.

According to Cuba Tourism, Cuba does not impose any restrictions on Americans. Their entry requirements are the same for all countries: tourists will need a valid passport and a Cuban visa. In case of Americans, their passports should be valid for the duration of their stay. While for Canadian passport holders, the passport validity one month after the last day of travel is required. Please note that as part of the People to People license required for all U.S. passengers, you will need to complete the necessary programs and shore excursions while sailing with us.

Is the ship wheelchair accessible?

Yes, Celestyal Crystal is wheelchair accessible. The ship offers a limited number of wheelchair accessible cabins. They have wood floors, wider doors, and a lightly ramped floor into the washroom. Photos are available upon request. Booking a wheelchair accessible cabin is done through our reservations department call center on a request basis. If you require a wheelchair for any part of your cruise due to mobility issues, please contact our call center in order to obtain and complete a questionnaire that will allow us to assess your needs and provide the best information and accommodation for you while onboard with us.

However, at certain ports of call, small boats known as "tenders" are used to transport passengers from the ship to shore. Certain tenders may not be accessible to individuals using wheelchairs or mobility scooters. In addition the tendering process at a particular port under weather, sea, swell, current and/or tide conditions may prove difficult for a safe transfer to take place. In each case, it will be the decision of the ship's Master to determine, based on his evaluation of safety issues for our guests and crew, whether or not a guest using a wheelchair may board a tender. In order to safely board tenders, guests must be able to take steps and use a collapsible/fold up wheelchair; motorized wheel-chairs and mobility scooters cannot be taken on tenders.

How do I find out the price for my trip with Celestyal Cruises?

Please contact our call center or visit our website at cuba.celestyalcruises.com to check prices and availability.

Are there any additional port charges and gratuity fees?

Port charges and gratuities are included in your cruise fare. Port charges & gratuities are $304(USD)/€235 per person for adults, $269(USD)/€207pp for children (age 2-11.99) and $234(USD)/€179pp for infants (3 months - 1.99 years).

Do infants pay cruise fare, port charges and gratuities?

Infants from 3 months and up to their second birth date as of the first day of sailing do not pay a cruise fare when sharing a cabin with a minimum of two adults. Port charges and gratuities of $234(USD)/€179pp must be paid.

If travelling alone, is there a single supplement?

Yes, there is a single supplement. It is an additional 80% of the cruise price for categories IA to XD and 100% for cabins XF and higher.

Does Celestyal Cruises also offer flights?

No. Celestyal Cruises does not offer flights. Please check with one of our preferred tour operator partners or Huntington Travel for information.
